

10 places to get your game on

We're game

Au revoir, boring bar nights. Head to these local hotspots for a game of bingo or beanbag toss between pints. You'll get more bang (and laughs) for your buck — always a good thing in a shaky economy, right?

Here are ten places to let your inner game-loving adolescent out.

— Mary Ann Georgantopoulos, Boston.com Correspondent

Board games

Remember all the fun you had as a child playing Operation? Buzzer sounds still make us twitch. Head over to Harvard Square's Noir and wipe the dust off of classic games UNO* and Connect Four every Sunday. You'll never be board again. (Sorry, we couldn't resist.)

*Tip: Save a Uno wild card until the end of the game. Pretty much a guaranteed win.

All day. Noir, One Bennett St., Cambridge 617-661-8010. www.noir-bar.com

(Photo courtesy of Noir)

