JUSTIN ROBERTS & THE NOT READY FOR NAPTIME PLAYERS

The all-stars of the family music scene, Justin Roberts and The Not Ready for Naptime Players create intelligent, whimsical music for children and their parents. Roberts's latest CD, Jungle Gym, recalls the collective memories of childhood: from the joys of trick-or-treating to sleepovers to the peacefulness of snow days. This musical journey results in a musical experience that kids will relate to and parents will remember.

HAYES GREENFIELD'S JAZZ-A-MA-TAZZ

Founded in 1997 by saxophonist, recording artist, and composer Hayes Greenfield, Jazz-A-Ma-Tazz educates aspiring young musicians on the art of improvisation and the exciting world of jazz. Jazz-A-Ma-Tazz's professional ensemble players use the elements of jazz - call and response, melody, improvisation, rhythm, and dynamics as tools for helping the audience explore how communication, positive risk-taking, cooperation, and creative expression contribute to music-making. www.jazzamatazz.com

Sunday, August 8 at 4:30 p.m.

BILL HARLEY

A two-time Grammy award-winning artist and recipient of the Magic Penny Award from the Children's Music Network, Bill Harley brings humor to the family music scene with stories about school, growing up, and life at home. Selected titles include "You're In Trouble," "Dad Threw The TV Out The Window," "50 Ways To Fool Your Mother," and "Monsters In The Bathroom." Harley's newest song, "Wash Your Hands," showcases his story-singing abilities and reminds kids to clean up to prevent the spread of the flu. www.billharley.com
